Lieutenant Colonel William H. Johnston, deputy paymaster general, will be relieved from duty in the Department of the East by the commanding general of that department, and will report in person to the commanding general Department of Dakota for duty as chief paymaster of that department.

Major William R. Gibson, paymaster, will be relieved from duty in the Department of the Missouri by the commanding general of that department, and will report in person to the commanding general Department of Texas for duty as chief paymaster of that department.

Major Charles M. Terrell, paymaster, will be relieved from duty in the Department of Texas by the commanding general of that department, and will report to the commanding general Department of Dakota for duty in that department.

Major John E. Blaine, paymaster, will be relieved from duty in the Department of Dakota by the commanding general of that department, and will report in person to the commanding general Department of the East for duty in New York City.

The journeys required in complying with this order are necessary for the public service.

4. By direction of the Secretary of War Major Henry Clayton, paymaster, upon the completion of his payments on muster and pay rolls for April 30, 1885, will be relieved from duty in the Department of Dakota by the commanding general of that department, and will then proceed to Baltimore, Maryland, and report by letter to the commanding general Department of the East for temporary duty in that city. The journey, as directed, is necessary for the public service.

5. By direction of the Secretary of War leave of absence for four months, from May 15, 1885, is granted Captain Wyllys Lyman, 5th Infantry.

6. The following order has been received from the War Department:

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, May 12, 1885.

By direction of the President Lieutenant Colonel John M. Wilson, Corps of Engineers, will be relieved from his present duties, to take effect June 1, 1885, and will report in person to the Chief of Engineers for assignment to duty in charge of public buildings and grounds, to relieve Major Almon F. Rockwell, quartermaster, U. S. Army, of that duty.

WM. C. ENDICOTT,
Secretary of War.

7. The leave of absence granted Captain Joseph K. Corson, assistant surgeon, U. S. Army, in Orders, No. 105, May 8, 1885, Cavalry Depot, Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, is extended ten days.

8. With the approval of the Secretary of War leave of absence for one year, with permission to apply for an extension of one year and to go beyond sea, is granted Captain Ferdinand E. De Courcy, 13th Infantry.

9. By direction of the Secretary of War the leave of absence for seven days heretofore granted Captain John J. Kane, assistant surgeon, U. S. Army, is extended one month.

10. The following order has been received from the War Department:

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, May 12, 1885.

By direction of the President, and in accordance with section 1225, Revised Statutes, 1st Lieutenant Crosby P. Miller, 4th Artillery, is detailed as professor of military science and tactics at the University of Vermont, Burlington, Vermont, to take effect July 1, 1885, and will report for duty accordingly, relieving 1st Lieutenant Herbert E. Tutherly, 1st Cavalry, who, upon being so relieved, will proceed to join his troop.

WM. C. ENDICOTT,
Secretary of War.

The journeys required in complying with this order are necessary for the public service.

11. By direction of the Secretary of War the following changes in the stations and duties of officers of the Quartermaster's Department are ordered:

Upon the receipt of this order at the Headquarters Division of the Pacific, Captain Charles F. Humphrey, assistant quartermaster, will be relieved from duty in that division by the commanding general thereof (who will detail an officer, temporarily, to perform the duties now performed by Captain Humphrey), and will then proceed to Cheyenne Depot, Wyoming Territory, and report by letter to the commanding general Department of the Platte for assignment to duty at that depot, to relieve Captain James H. Lord, assistant quartermaster.

Captain Lord will transfer all the property, books, records, and funds in his possession to Captain Humphrey with as little delay as practicable, and will then proceed to Jeffersonville Depot, Indiana, and report in person to the commanding officer of that depot for assignment to duty in charge of transportation and the purchase of regular and miscellaneous supplies, under the direction of the commanding officer.

Captain Andrew H. Young, assistant quartermaster, is relieved from temporary duty in New York City, and will report in person to the commanding officer Columbus Barracks, Ohio, for duty as post quartermaster, relieving Captain Charles A. Booth, assistant quartermaster.

Captain Booth, on being thus relieved, will proceed to Fort Monroe, Virginia, and report by letter to the commanding general Division of the Atlantic for assignment to duty as post quartermaster at that post.

Captain Daniel D. Wheeler, assistant quartermaster, will be relieved from duty in the Division of the Atlantic by the commanding general of that division on the receipt of this order, and will report in person to the commanding general Division of the Pacific for assignment to duty as assistant to the chief quartermaster of the division and of the Department of California.

The commanding officer Fort Monroe, Virginia, will designate an officer, temporarily, to relieve Captain Wheeler of his duties and responsibilities at that station, to enable him to comply with this order without unnecessary delay.

The journeys required in complying with this order are necessary for the public service.

12. By direction of the Secretary of War, under the act approved June 3, 1884, and to complete his record, the discharge of 1st Sergeant *Charles M.
